

O How Vast the Blessings

Psalm 1

Joseph Tyrpak

James Mountain

F C/E F F7 B \flat C F F C/E

vv. 1-2 1. O how vast the blessings to the man who flees Com - pa - ny with
vv. 3-4 2. As a tree well - wa - tered can - not be re - moved, So the right - eous vv. 5-6 3. At God's throne of judg - ment, sin - ners will not stand. They at God's pro - *see below 4. Christ a - lone is right - eous and su - preme - ly blessed. We whom God deems

* 2 Cor. 5:21; John 15:1-5; Matt. 7:24-25

F F/A C/G G G7 C F C7/G F B \flat F/A

those who love in - i - qui - ty! But in God's in - struc - tion pros - per, ev - er yield - ing fruit. But un - god - ly sin - ners nounce - ment will be just - ly damned. Not so for the right - eous!
right - eous in His robes are dressed. Bear - ing god - ly fruit through

Gm7 C7/G F C F C \sharp dim Dm GM7/B F/C C C7 F

he takes deep de - light, Fix - ing his at - ten - tion on it day and night.
like the chaff will be: Wind - blown through - out life, then lost e - ter - nal - ly.
God knows us by name. We be - fore His throne will sav - ing grace pro - claim!
Christ, the liv - ing Vine; Stayed for - ev - er sure on Christ, the Rock Di - vine.

Refrain F C7/G F/A B \flat F/A Gm7 C7/G F C

Lov - ers of the Lord's Law are su - preme - ly blessed:

F C \sharp dim Dm GM7/B F/C C C7 F

Root - ed firm and fruit - ful, strong through eve - ry test.