vv. 1 1. Not to us be glo - ry, LORD; Not to us praise or re - ward.
vv. 2-3 2. Why should heath - en mock the Lord? "Where is He?"— their scoff - ing word.
vv. 4-8 3. Fool - ish men in vain have prayed To the i - dols they have made:
vv. 9-18 4. Come, you saints and saints to come; Trust in God, your Help and Home.
*see below 5. Christ has claimed a cho - sen race For the glo - ry of His grace.

* Ephesians 1:6, 12, 14; John 3:30

You a - lone be mag - ni - fied; On - ly Your name glo - ri - fied!
In the heav'ns He reigns a - lone, Rul - ing from His loft - y throne.
Wood - en eye and mol - ten ear— Gods which nei - ther see nor hear.
All who fear Him, He - re - calls; He will bless us, great and small,
Who but He can prais - es claim? Who boasts such a match - less name?

For Your un - re - lent - ing love, For Your faith - ful - ness a - bove,
What He pleas - es He per - forms; All to His de - sign con - forms.
All who to such stones have fled Shall be like them: dull and dead.
Praise Him! Praise your Shield and Lord All through life, then ev - er - more!
We whose song will ne - ver cease Long to fade and Christ in - crease!
