

He Was Wounded

Isaiah 53

Chris Anderson

Greg Habegger

see below*

1. Can it be? Who would be - lieve? Our pro - mised Prince lacked maj - es - 53:4-6 2. Though He groaned with pain His own, our griefs and tears He bore a - 53:7-9 3. Though dis - tressed— by men op - pressed— He ut - tered ne'er a mild pro -
 53:10-12 4. As God willed His blood was spilled: the guil - ty spared, the guilt - less

Isaiah 52:13-15; Isaiah 53:1-3*

4

ty: Strick - en hard, gro - tesque - ly scarred— no face was e'er so cruel - ly marred. Os - tra - lone. He was scourged as scoff - ers urged, and by His blood our guilt was purged. Sol - diers test; Like a lamb, the great "I AM" said naught to those He might have damned. In - no - killed. Hea - ven's King bore Hea - ven's sting, was poured out as an of - fer - ing. Je - sus cized, He was de - spised, as one from whom men hide their eyes. Beaut - y done, God hid the sun, then struck and crushed His pre - cious Son. For the cent, His soul was rent; e - ter - nal wrath on Him was spent! In a died— was sat - is - fied— and ma - ny shall be jus - ti - fied. Throne re - free— a brit - tle tree— yet through Him God's strong arm we see!

9

13

 sin of sheep - like men God chas - tened God, our peace to win!
 cave, a bor - rowed grave, He lay for those He came to save.
 stored, His prayers out - poured; soon all shall bow to Christ the Lord!

16

He was wound - ed, He was wound - ed! Praise our Ser - vant Sac - ri - fice! Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah! We are healed by Je - sus' stripes!

20